THE NICARAGUA AFFAIR

Great Britain's Claim for Indemnity a Just One.

UNCLE SAM WILL NOT INTERFERE.

Arranging for the Framing of a New Treaty with Great Britain Concerning Behring Sea Seizures—Necessity for Action to Protect the Seals from Extinction.

WASHINGTON, March 23.—The cabinet meeting yesterday lasted but two hours, everybody being present except Secretary Carlisle, who was in New York. The session is said to have been uneventful, thus disappointing the expectations of those who looked for some decided aggressive action in foreign affairs. It is also said that there was an entire absence of friction among the members, although the principal subjects under discussion, relating to the various complications into which we have become involved with certain foreign countries, were well calculated to exhibit divergence of individual views.

It is presumed that the attitude of Great Britain towards Venezuela and Nicaragua was canvassed, but as far as can be gathered the secretary of state has no new matter touching this to impart, and it was not believed to be necessary to take any positive action in the absence of an explicit statement of the purposes of Great Britain. As far as the Nicaragua matter is concerned it is not believed that our government is disposed to take issue with Great Britain as to her right to demand an indemnity for the unjust treatment of her consular agent and citizens. Inasmuch as the United States has already and repeatedly gone on record as insisting on its right in such cases to secure reparation for improper treatment of its citizens.

The only point upon which there can be a question is as to the method of collecting the indemnity, but there is reason to believe that in the view of the cabinet the subject need cause no real trouble, as Nicaragua doubtless will agree to meet reasonable demands from Great Britain when it is made clear to her by our department of state that she cannot otherwise rely upon the moral support of the United States, which might otherwise be disposed to use its good offices to secure an abatement of the amount of the indemnity if the principle of an indemnity is conceded.

In view of the more weighty matters now engaging the attention of the administration it is stated that foreign ministers in Washington are likely to be, at least for the present, left undisturbed in their relations with our government. No answer, beyond a purely preliminary one acknowledging the receipt of our communication and promising to make investigation, has been returned to Spain to our demand in the Alliance affair, and while under ordinary conditions this might be resented by our government, a disposition was shown by the cabinet to make all due allowance for the fact that, as a result of the overruling of the Spanish cabinet, the subordinates there dare not do anything to compromise the incoming cabinet.

Preliminaries are being arranged for the framing of a new treaty between the United States and Great Britain concerning Behring sea seizures. The negotiations will be carried on in Washington. Sir Charles Tupper, minister of marine and fisheries for Canada, and other leading statesmen of the dominion, including probably Minister Foster, will come here to co-operate with Sir Julian Pauncefote, the British ambassador, concerning the terms of the treaty. The question of fixing the date for the meeting is now under consideration.

The projected treaty is rendered necessary by the inaction of congress on the Behring sea seizures claims. The original claims, which, with interest, amounted to $750,000, were scaled down to $25,000. President Cleveland advised payment in his message to congress, but an amendment to carry out the president's recommendation was defeated. It was then sought to provide for an international commission to adjust the terms of settlement, but this also failed, leaving the matter still open. The purpose of the treaty will be, therefore, to create a commission to hear all the evidence and determine the amount of indemnity to be paid the seized sealers. After being signed the treaty will have to be submitted to the senate for ratification, and unless there is an extra session this cannot be accomplished before next December.

While it is felt that this is an unfortunate delay in adjusting the claims, yet it appears to be the only means of advancing them to an honorable settlement consistent with the kindly relations existing between the United States and Great Britain.

Another phase of the sealeries question which may come up simultaneously with the adjustment of the claims is the framing of a new modus vivendi or other means of protecting the seal herds in Behring sea. Experts appear to agree that the seals will be exterminated soon unless energetic steps are taken, as the protection afforded by the regulations agreed on by the Paris court of arbitration seem to be insufficient.

His Dying Statement Discredited.

BUFFALO, March 23.—The police are now reasonably certain that the Halliday mystery was a case of suicide. Halliday declared when dying that he had been assaulted by an unknown man. It has been shown that Halliday died with his lips in regard to his bank account and his whereabouts before the tragedy, and the police are convinced that the whole of his ante mortem statement was a fabrication.

The Washington Incendiary Insane.

MILWAUKEE, March 23.—Mario Delaney, who is under arrest in Washington on a charge of attempting to burn churches, was for a long time a dressmaker in this city, and a few years ago she became insane and was sent to a county asylum, but escaped, and as she was not violently insane no attempt was made to place her under restraint again.

FINANCE AND TRADE.

Cheering Reports from the Leading Commercial Agencies.

NEW YORK, March 23.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s weekly review of trade says: Indications of improvement in business grow more distinct. The most obtrusive of them, the speculative advance in cotton and in stocks, is the least reliable. More valuable indications are that the volume of domestic trade gains a little, money is in much better legitimate demand, and the force of hands at work gradually increases in some industries and in others is restricted only by strikes, which are presumably temporary.

The advance in wages of coke workers raises the cost of fuel for a large proportion of the iron manufacturers, but as yet does not affect prices of iron or its products, as no increase in demand appears.

Failures for the past week have been 278 in the United States, against 244 for the same week last year, and 35 in Canada, against 50 last year.

Bradstreet's review says: Improvement in general trade is more marked, but not general. It is more conspicuous at larger New England points—namely Boston and Providence—at New York, Pittsburg, Cincinnati, Louisville and other centers along the Ohio river valley to St. Louis, and as far west as Kansas City. Similar reports come from Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul. From other cities a better feeling is reported, based on the recently developed strength in cotton, wheat and flour.

The Harvard-Princeton Debate.

PRINCETON, N. J., March 23.—The Harvard-Princeton debate will take place in Alexander hall, Princeton, March 27. Harvard was given the choice of sides, and selected the negative side of the question. "If it were possible, a reasonable property qualification for the exercise of the municipal franchise in the United States would be desirable." Princeton will be represented by Joseph W. Park, '95; Howard White, '95, and Willis Butler, '95. Harvard will be represented by Durward Gasod and William Hutton, '95, and Dobson, '97. The debate will be the first ever held between two institutions.

Thirty Years' Fight for an Earldom.

TORONTO, March 23.—George Marshall Graham, of this city, after a hard fight with fate for thirty years, has just been identified as heir to the Scottish earldoms of Strathern, Montiel and Airth. Two senior branches, having become extinct, the titles and estates pass to the third branch, of which the Toronto man is the representative. The new earl is entitled to a seat in the British house of lords, and will claim it as soon as some necessary preliminary arrangements are made. Graham has for some time been working as bookkeeper in a florist's shop.

At Work on the Cup Defender.

BRISTOL, R. I., March 23.—Captain Nat Herreshoff is improving very rapidly, and was able to work around the grounds yesterday. He spent the afternoon in perfecting his plans for the new cup defender. The sails of the new craft will be made in Bristol, and not in Boston as before reported. As there is not room enough at Herreshoff's works, the second story of a large building owned by the National Rubber works has been rented for the purpose. It is expected that about 12,000 square feet of canvas will be required.

Held Up a Stage Coach.

HUNTINGDON, Pa., March 23.—The public stage running between Cassville and Mill Creek, this county, was held up about midway between the two places by three men supposed to be tramps. There were five passengers, two women and three men, on the stage. They were relieved of their money, amounting to over $90. Watches and other valuables were not molested. The highwaymen escaped to the mountains. This is the second highway robbery in this vicinity within a month.

Dr. Buchanan Sentenced to Death.

NEW YORK, March 23.—Dr. Robert Buchanan, the wife murderer, whose conviction was confirmed by the court of appeals some time ago, was brought down from Sing Sing prison yesterday by Keeper Bell and Detective Jackson, and was taken to the court of general sessions for re-sentencing. Recorder Goff fixed the week beginning Monday, April 23, as the date for the electrocution.

An Educator's Sudden Death.

ROANOKE, Va., March 23.—Rev. Dr. William Brown Yonce, professor of ancient languages at Roanoke college, dropped dead from apoplexy last night at the Lutheran church in Salem. He was in his usual health, apparently, till a few minutes before his death. He was 63 years old and a native of southwest Virginia. He had been a professor at Roanoke college since 1855.

Supposed Indictment of C. P. Huntington.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 23.—The United States grand jury yesterday afternoon returned an indictment against some party whose name is withheld, and the amount of bail was fixed at $5,000. Today's papers assert that the indictment is against C. P. Huntington, president of the Southern Railroad company, for violation of the interstate commerce act in issuing passes to politicians.

More New York Police Indictments.

NEW YORK, March 23.—The extraordinary grand jury of the mayor and term court came into court and handed to Judge Ingraham a bunch of indictments, numbering, it is said, eleven. Nothing as to the nature of the indictments can be ascertained at this juncture. There is a rumor that one of the indictments is against Inspector Williams.

Two Killed in a Collision.

DALLAS, Tex., March 23.—A north bound through passenger train on the Missouri, Kansas and Texas road came into collision with a freight train at Fisher's, nine miles from here. Hearn, the engineer of the passenger train, and Harden, a brakeman on the freight, were killed. Bolles, the conductor on the passenger train, was badly injured.

DEATH OF RICHARD VAUX.

The Ex-Mayor of Philadelphia a Victim of the Grip.

PHILADELPHIA, March 23.—Ex-Mayor Richard Vaux, inspector of the Eastern penitentiary, and one of the best known citizens of Philadelphia, died of the grip yesterday morning at his home, 1900 Chestnut street, after an illness of but five days. His immediate relatives were with him when he died, and he was conscious until the end.

Mr. Vaux was born in this city Dec. 19, 1816, and was the son of Robert Vaux, one of Pennsylvania's foremost citizens.

THE LATE RICHARD VAUX.

He was admitted to the bar when only 20 years of age, and soon afterward became secretary of legation at London. In 1841 he was appointed recorder of Philadelphia, and in 1853 was elected mayor. In 1859 Mr. Vaux was elected to fill the unexpired term of Samuel J. Randall in the Fifty-first congress, being succeeded by William McAllester.

Mr. Vaux published several valuable essays, and on the subject of penology was considered an authority, both in Europe and in this country. His reports on the penitentiary aggregate nearly fifty volumes, while his treatise on "Crime, its Causes and Punishment" are very numerous. He had been president of the board of prison inspectors for over forty years.

British Force Nearly Annihilated.

CALCUTTA, March 23.—Further details have been received of the fighting between the British force and the Chitralis. Lieutenant Ross, with sixty Sikhs, was on the way to reinforce the British post at Reshun, near Karagh. As the British force were proceeding for their destination they were unexpectedly attacked by a force of Chitralis, who were protected by a breastwork. The fire of the attacks was so hot that the British force was compelled to withdraw. As they withdrew they found their retreat had been cut off by about a thousand of the enemy, who poured a murderous fire from all sides into them. The British force fought desperately until most of them were killed, only fourteen of the Sikhs succeeding in cutting their way through. They left behind them, dead, Lieutenant Ross, forty-six Sikhs and eight followers of the column.

Murdered by a Widow.

City Officials Indicted.

GALVESTON, Tex., March 23.—The grand jury returned four indictments against City Collector T. D. Gilbert charging shortage and irregularities in his accounts. He gave bond to appear for trial. Gilbert was tried yesterday before the city council for malfeasance and nonfeasance in office, and was acquitted. Richard H. Tiernan, former city auditor, has been indicted for making a false entry in his books. The charges grew out of a recent expert examination of the city's affairs.

Cutting Off Appropriations.

BISMARCK, N. D., March 23.—Governor Allen cut off $120,500 from the appropriation bills passed at the late session of the North Dakota legislature. The total appropriation for the state institutions amounted to $361,490. The action of the governor will compel the closing of the normal schools and state university at the end of this term, but the rest can get along with economical management.

A Leper in a New York Tenement.

NEW YORK, March 23.—The health board yesterday learned that there had been a man stricken with leprosy living for the past six years at a tenement house in this city. A thorough investigation will be made immediately. The man's name and address have not been given out. He has a wife and five children, and one of his daughters is married and has a 7-months' old baby.

Will Sue the Adulterers.

CINCINNATI, March 23.—The retail druggists who have been prosecuted by the food commissioner and found guilty of selling adulterated articles will sue the wholesale dealers for damages. They claim the goods purchased were represented as being pure. The wholesalers will, in turn, sue the manufacturers and original producers of the ingredients.

Recovering Dead Miners' Bodies.

EVANSTON, Wyo., March 23.—Four more bodies were brought out of the Red Canyon mine yesterday, making twenty-one bodies that have been recovered since Thursday. There are good prospects that the other bodies will be recovered, as the ventilation in the mine is getting better. A general funeral will take place tomorrow.

McAnuliffe and Griffo Matched.

NEW YORK, March 23.—Jack McAnuliffe and Young Griffo were matched yesterday afternoon to fight on or about Oct. 10 for the lightweight championship, at 135 pounds. The match will be for $10,000 a side. The fight is to take place on or about Oct. 10, before the club offering the largest purse.

BIG STRIKE IMMINENT.

Rhode Island Mill Workers Want Increased Pay.

EMPLOYERS WILL CLOSE THE MILLS

The Manufacturers Have Combined, and Threaten to Suspend Operations at the First Sign of a Strike, and to Have No Communication with the Strikers.

PROVIDENCE, March 23.—All the textile manufacturers of Providence held a meeting yesterday and agreed to combine their interests. They decided to close any or all of their mills at the first sign of a strike. They also agreed not to communicate with their operatives in the event of a strike, and to make no proposition of any description.

Olneyville today has been a hot bed of strike sentiment, and for a while a general strike was contemplated for April, but it has been decided instead that the operatives of the Fletcher mills shall make a demand Monday for a return to the schedule of 1893. If this is refused a general strike will probably follow soon after. The mills in Olneyville which will be affected are: Manton, Weybosset, Providence, Nashua, Valley, Lymanville, Seere, Atlantic, Wantuck, Saranac, Saxon, Worsted company and Riverside.

The locked out operatives of the Weybosset mills met yesterday in Textile hall to discuss the situation, and decided to await next Monday's developments. A general meeting of the Worsted union was held last night, but the proceedings were not made known.

Horace Kimball, of the Manton mills, in an interview today said that profits were so small it is impossible to think of returning to the schedule of 1893.

An Alabama Desperado Killed.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., March 23.—Jim Morrison, a noted desperado, who has long terrorized the inhabitants of a remote section of this county, was shot dead by Deputy Sheriff Cole on Thursday night, while resisting arrest. A few years ago while serving a term in the Pratt mines for killing Tom Webb, he and other convicts escaped by blowing their way out with dynamite. Since that time he killed Deputy Sheriff Dexter, who was trying to arrest him, and established in the mountains and carried out his outlawry unmolested.

Home Rule for Wilmington.

DOVER, Del., March 23.—A bill has been introduced in the legislature for the reorganization of Wilmington's police force. The object of the new bill is to get the mayor back into the police commission by virtue of his office, the two other commissioners to be elected by the people, one from the lower, or Democratic section of the city, and the other from the upper, or Republican section. Another bill introduced provides for the election of the judge of Wilmington's municipal court. These officers are at present appointed by the governor.

Fatal Fire in a Match Factory.

One was perhaps fatally burned and three others seriously injured by jumping from the second story window. The injured are Jennie Warner, Annie Hans, Roy Tate and an unknown girl. It is feared that Annie Hans will die.

Vandalism Among Students.

PROVIDENCE, March 23.—The police were notified yesterday that students of Brown university had broken the limbs from two valuable pieces of statuary on the lawn of Millionaire William Goddard, who is chancellor of the university. It is thought that the pieces were broken in an endeavor to carry them away. No arrests have been made.

Riotous Mine Strikers in Belgium.

LIEGE, Belgium, March 23.—A general strike of the miners in the collieries here has commenced. Yesterday the strikers became riotous and there were several collisions between them and the police, in which revolvers and stones were freely used. Several men were wounded in the fighting. The ringleaders of the rioters were arrested.

J.; Henry Oliver, known as "Big Oliver," and William McGuire were placed on trial yesterday in the United States district court, before Judge W. K. Townsend. The men were captured in Bridgeport on Dec. 17, and a complete set of moulds and coining tools, with a number of spurious half and standard dollars, found. Oliver and Brown, when they heard the government cases, pleaded guilty and were sentenced to five years' imprisonment. McGuire, who asserted his innocence, got ten years.

A Fugitive Prisoner Surrenders.

FREDERICKSBURG, Va., March 23.—A well-dressed young man, who gave his name as Edwin Tuttle, surrendered to the mayor of this city and asked to be put under arrest and sent to Jersey City for a robbery committed there. The police of that city wired the mayor here that his story is correct, and that he is wanted for stealing money and checks.

The Detained Diamond Cutters.

NEW YORK, March 23.—The special board of inquiry convened for the purpose of disposing of the diamond cutters who were landed from the steamship Majestic was kept busy yesterday. Out of the 127 who were held sixty-five were discharged, and are now roaming about New York presumably looking for work, but Commissioner Sonner avows they went directly from the barge office to their employers. The remainder are housed on the island, and unless an appeal in their case is made will be returned on the next White Star line steamship sailing out of this port.

NEW JERSEY LEGISLATURE.

The State Board of Arbitration Bill Passed by Both Houses.

TRENTON, March 23.—The senate, in executive session, rejected the following nominations made by Governor Werts: For law judge of Middlesex county, J. Kearney Rice; prosecutor of Middlesex county, Robert Adams; prosecutor of Gloucester county, A. H. Swackhamer; lay judge of Gloucester county, S. Bowman Cox; lay judge of Salem county, William Newell; state factory inspector, Lawrence T. Fell. All the other nominations before the senate, including Wilson Jenkins as prosecutor of Camden county, were confirmed.

The senate passed over the governor's veto the Storrs naturalization bill, which passed the house on Thursday. The senate also passed the house bills making Lincoln's birthday a legal holiday, and compelling corporations other than railroads to pay their employees in cash every two weeks. The amended Storrs state arbitration board bill, and the bill making an appropriation for the building of an addition to the state prison were passed by both houses.

The state prison bill provides for an appropriation of $100,000. The state board of arbitration bill names five persons who shall constitute the board and supersede and have the same powers as the members of the present board. They are to receive a salary of $1,200 a year each. The following are the members named in the bill: S. S. Sherwood of Paterson, James Martin of Newark, William M. Doughty of Cumberland, Charles Houston of Somerville and Joseph L. Moore, of Camden.

Both houses adjourned to meet on June 4.

MINISTER SENT TO PRISON.

He Sold His Half Rate Railroad Tickets to Brokers.

CHICAGO, March 23.—Rev. Frank Chardon has been found guilty in the federal court in this city of having made use of the mails to sell his clergyman's half rate orders over various railroads. Chardon, who was a man of good reputation, sent letters to brokers inviting bids on the permits he had secured. The peculiar job that convicted him was with J. E. Lasker, a broker in Cincinnati, to whom Chardon, writing under the name of "L. Carpenter," offered two half permits for $50 each. One was over the B. and O. Southwestern, which was sent to Lasker, and the other over the Big Four. The latter, however, had not been received by Chardon when he was arrested.

He also secured a number of trip passes, which he sold to various brokers in this city. He claimed that he did not understand that it was wrong to dispose of the transportation. Late yesterday afternoon Chardon was called before the court, and on account of his apparent mental inability to realize that he did a wrong he was sent to the Geneva county jail for thirty days.

An Indian Murderer Hanged.

TABLEMOUNT, N. T., March 23.—Walter Bark, a full blooded Cherokee Indian, was hanged in the jail yard here for the murder of Johnson Roes in Going Snake district several years ago. On the scaffold Bark made a short talk, in which he said he was innocent of murder, and that he killed Roes to prevent the latter from robbing him. Bark was cool until the rope was placed around his neck. Then he broke down and had to be supported until the drop fell. Bark's crime was committed nearly four years ago.

Three Dead Bodies in a Car.

DENVER, March 23.—A special to The News from Trinidad, Colo., says: This morning Section Foreman Norman, on the Santa Fe railroad at Springer, N. M., while inspecting cars, made the horrible discovery of three dead men in a box car standing on the side track at that station. It is supposed that they took up quarters in the car for the night and started a fire with charcoal in a common tinners' stove, which they carried, and probably the gas suffocated them.

SPAIN'S NEW PREMIER.

Senor Del Castillo Again Succeeds Senor Sagasta.

MANY TIMES PRIME MINISTER.

He Has Been a Member of the Cortes for Forty Years, and Has Always Been a Consistent and Courageous Royalist—An Anti-Slavery Leader.

MADRID, March 23.—The queen regent has charged Senor Canovas Del Castillo with the formation of a cabinet to replace the Sagasta ministry, that resigned on Monday last, in consequence of troubles growing out of the attacks on the army by newspapers.

Senor Don Antonio Canovas Del Castillo was born in 1830. He made his debut in 1851 as chief editor of The Patria, in which he defended conservative ideas. In 1851 he was named deputy of Malaga, and since that year has never ceased to occupy a seat in the cortes. He held several important positions under the government, and in 1874 he was minister of finance and the colonies. He drew up the law for the abolition of the traffic in slaves. His greatest title to fame is that of having been the first to hoist the standard of legitimate and constitutional monarchy in the full constituent assembly in 1831, in the face of a triumphant revolution.

His fidelity and capacity obtained for him the supreme direction of the Alfonsist party, and in the proclamation of Alfonso XII as king in December, 1874, Senor Canovas Del Castillo became president of the council and chief of the new cabinet. This office he held until 1879, when Marshal Martinez de Campos became prime minister. Senor Castillo opposed the marshal's free trade and emancipation projects, and finally, in December, 1879, compelled his resignation, and Castillo again came into power and held the reins of government until 1881, when he was overthrown by a coalition between the supporters of Senor Sagasta and Marshal Martinez de Campos, and the former became prime minister.

The Sagasta ministry resigned in 1883, but Senor Sagasta formed a new cabinet, which held office about nine months, when it was succeeded by the Posada Herrera ministry. In 1884 this cabinet was overthrown, and Castillo again formed a ministry. In 1885 this ministry resigned on account of the king's intention to visit Valencia, where cholera was prevailing, but the king gave in and the ministers continued in office. In November, 1885, Senor Castillo was compelled to resign on the question of the German occupancy of the Caroline Islands, and he was succeeded by Senor Sagasta, who held the premiership until July, 1890, when he resigned, and Castillo again became prime minister with a coalition cabinet. From then until now Senores Sagasta and Canovas Del Castillo have alternated in holding the office of prime minister.

It is not known that the shot was fatal. The Laurestina is consigned to the Joseph R. It is said that the sailor had forgotten or refused to give the countersign when challenged.

The testimony created a decided sensation.

The Greetlands was about two-thirds laden with a general cargo valued at $100,000, and the hull was worth about the same amount.

LONDON, March 23.—The house, by a vote of 150 to 105, adopted the resolution offered by Mr. Allen providing for the payment of members.

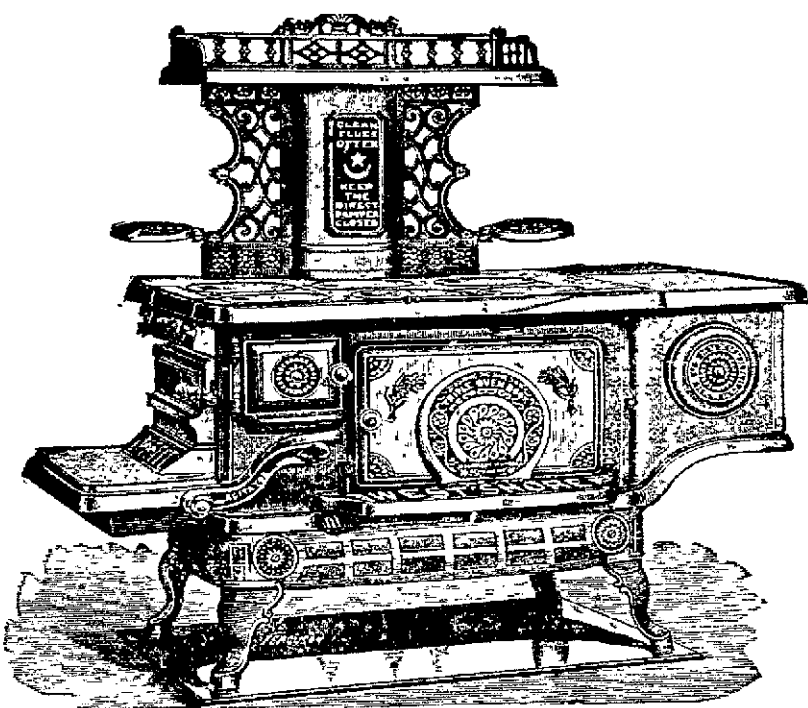

You'll Miss It,
if you try to get along without Pearl-ine. The work of washing will be harder, there'll be more of it, and it won't be as well done. You'll lose money in the time that's wasted, and the things that are worn out in the wretched rub, rub, rub, over the washboard. Easy washing with Pearl-ine doesn't cost any more than hard and ruinous washing without it. But it saves a good deal, all the way through.

Peddlers and some unscrupulous grocers will tell you "this is as good as" or "the same as Pearl-ine." IT'S FALSE—Pearline is never peddled, and if your grocer sends you something in place of Pearl-ine, be honest—send it back.

PEOPLE WE KNOW.

From Geneva, N. Y., Courier.

It is a pleasure for us to present to our readers the recommendation of so estimable a citizen as Elias Dolson, of this place, knowing when he says that he was cured of rheumatism by the use of Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy, it is so. Rheumatism, is caused by an excess of acid in the blood, when it becomes settled in the joints the patient endures most excruciating pain; such was Mr. Dolson's condition when he began the use of Favorite Remedy, and like many others who have followed the same treatment he was cured. How many poor sufferers there are to-day who would give their fortunes to be relieved from the terrors of this awful complaint, not knowing that this valuable preparation can be obtained of every dealer in medicine. Mrs. Dolson, as well as her husband, has a good word for Favorite Remedy; says she, "I have been troubled for years with indigestion and palpitation of the heart, and I used Favorite Remedy and was entirely cured."

One of our local physicians in speaking of this medicine, recently, said: "Dr. David Kennedy has produced in Favorite Remedy the only antidote of uric acid, and the reason it cures such a variety of complaints is from the fact that it dissolves this acid, expelling it from the system, thereby curing the disease."

Favorite Remedy is a never failing specific in diseases of the skin, liver, kidneys and blood. It restores the disordered liver to healthy condition, corrects the worst cases of habitual constipation; it is a certain cure for the diseases and weakness peculiar to women. It cures scrofula, salt rheum and erysipelas. For nervousness, loss of sleep or that worn out feeling it has no equal. In cases of rheumatism, dyspepsia, gravel, Bright's disease, diabetes and bladder troubles, it has cured where all else failed. Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy is sold at $1 a bottle or six bottles for $5, which brings a treatment at a moderate price.

TRANSCERENCE OF THOUGHT.

Telepathy Opens a Great Field For Investigation by Metaphysicians.

No field of investigation so pregnant with interest has been as timidly abandoned to charlatans as the domain of telepathy. Until very recent times it has been almost entirely in the custody of mountebanks, empirics of the worst type, whose claims to consideration rested on cunning, shrewdness and lack of scruple. If we pause to consider that the phenomenon of thought transference both in the waking and sleeping condition was the initial inspiration that evolved the science of metaphysics, we may more nearly appreciate how foolishly workers in the higher spheres of thought have relinquished the keystone of psychology to the most blatant types of quackery.

Telepathy means the transference of thought, feelings, sensations, etc., from one person to another by some means other than the recognized sense perceptions of the recipient. It is the communication between a mind and mind otherwise than through the known channels of the senses.

The first notable fact in conjunction with this class of cases is that we invariably find a keen sympathetic bond between the "agent" and "percipient" that is either the result of blood ties, as in the case of relatives and between husband and wife, or it is cultivated intercourse, as between friends, or is the outcome of a joint aspiration found among those who seek a common goal.

That this thought transference has taken place between persons in close sympathy with each other is an admitted fact. The following case is selected from the researches of the Society For Psychical Research, they having verified the embodied facts:

"Mrs. Kenou Bruce started from England to America to join her husband in Nebraska. On board ship shortly after it left Queenstown she fell ill and became delirious. She saw her husband lying dead in the middle of a field, and her agony was excessive. On arriving in New York she received a telegram stating that Mr. Bruce was thrown from a horse and had broken his neck, and this occurred at the very hour when she, thousands of miles away on board ship, said she saw him lying dead in the field, as, in fact, he was at the time."

In this case the elements of collusion and muscle reading are certainly eliminated—"Travels of Thought" in Boston Herald

BRADLAUGH'S LECTURE.

The Money He Made and the Easy Life He Was Leading.

I had lectured in Edinburgh in mid-winter. The audience was small, the profits microscopic. After paying my bill at the Temperance hotel, where I then staid, I had only a few shillings more than my parliamentary fare to Bolton, where I was next to lecture. I was out of bed at 5 on a freezing morning and could have no breakfast, as the people were not up. I carried my luggage—a big tin box corded round, which then held the books and clothes, and a small black bag—for I could not spare any of my scanty cash for a conveyance or porter.

The train from Edinburgh being delayed by a severe snowstorm, the corresponding parliamentary had left Carlisle long before our arrival. In order to reach Bolton in time for my lecture I had to book by a quick train starting in about three-quarters of an hour, but could only book to Preston, as the increased fare took all my money except 4 1/2 pence. With this small sum I could get no refreshment in the station, but in a little shop in a street outside I got a mug of hot tea and a little hot meat pie.

From Preston I got with great difficulty on to Bolton, handing my black bag to the station master there as security for my fare from Preston until the morning. I arrived in Bolton about 7:45. The lecture commenced at 8, and I, having barely time to run to my lodgings and wash and change, went on the platform cold and hungry. I shall never forget that lecture. It was in an old Unitarian chapel.

We had no gas; the building seemed full of a foggy mist and was imperfectly lit with candles. Everything appeared cold, cheerless and gloomy. The most amusing feature was that an opponent endowed with extra piety and forbearance chose that evening to especially attack me for the money making and easy life I was leading—Charles Bradlaugh in "A Record of His Life by His Daughter"

THE KILLING OF BENJAMIN LITTS.

Out to Pieces by a Monticello Train While Intoxicated.

We mentioned briefly, yesterday, that Benjamin Litts was killed by the Monticello train, Thursday evening.

Litts had been in Monticello most of the day and got very drunk. His friends, knowing he would return home by way of the railroad and fearing he would meet with an accident, detained him at the house of Frank Phillips, but he managed to elude them.

He was seen lying across the rail by the engineer just before the locomotive struck him, when it was too late to avert the accident, and the whole train passed over him. His legs were found on the track and his head and body had been thrown down the bank. Part of the face could not be found, and his features were unrecognizable.

Litts lived about four miles from Monticello. He leaves a widow and a family of grown up children.

Sudden Death at Pond Eddy.

ON PEARY'S EXPEDITION.

Perfect Reliance Was Placed in Paine's Celery Compound.

"When I was selected by Lieut. Peary to accompany him on his trip to the Arctic regions to try and find a way to the north pole," says Mr. James W. Davidson in the Fourth Estate, "it was partly because of my strong, healthy constitution, and my belief that I could endure the fatigue and danger incident to the trip. I had been associated with him as his business manager on his lecturing tour, and was on terms of the greatest intimacy with him.

"When the ship Falcon left New York on her trip northward it had among the stores several cases of Paine's celery compound. The reputation of that medicine was well established, so that it was the most natural thing in the world that the members of the party, and they comprised men from nearly every walk in life, from common sailors to men of science, should desire to use it.

"The record of our perilous trip to Camp Anniversay is too well known to need repetition. Once in camp we naturally took an inventory of our possessions, and I was exceedingly glad to find Paine's celery compound. The medicine chest was open to all, and we were free to take from it what we thought advisable. I, and several others took some of the compound to my cabin, knowing that it would be handy when wanted. Nor was I mistaken, for the excessive cold weather soon had its effects and I began to be troubled in a number of ways. In every case whenever I felt the slightest indisposition, I used the compound and found relief.

"One thing noticeable in the Arctic region was that the cold weather made us all exceedingly nervous. We became irritable and cross. Our nerves were all unstrung, and naturally it affected our health. I talked the matter over with some of the others, and made up my mind that possibly the celery compound would be beneficial, for I knew that it was used for nervous disorders at home. Well, sir, we tried it, and I must say that it helped every one of us.

"When the long night of six months came on and we were in the darkness, we found that the effects were very depressing. Imagine, if you can, living for six months in darkness such as occurs here every night, and you can readily understand how we were situated. It is a wonder that some of us did not go mad. We had not very much to divert our attention, and the effect was something like solitary confinement in a dark cell.

"I have used Paine's celery compound for a dozen like such as a person is liable to have at any time, and especially in that desolate country. It has always helped me, and I should be pleased to have more of it should I go north again.

"I do not know of any one thing that I can say more of than Paine's celery compound. It certainly is a great medicine, and I am an advocate of it."

THE DISSOLUTION OF THE MILK EXCHANGE.

Opinions of Producers as to Its Effect—A Good Suggestion—The Milk Producers' Protective Association.

The Independent Republican has requested the opinions of many leading milk producers as to the result to farmers of the dissolution of the Milk Exchange. The general opinion seems to be that even if the Exchange did make prices to suit the buyers the farmers were benefitted by having a standard price, and now that the Exchange is no more they will be all at sea; that some kind of an organization to take its place is a necessity. There are some farmers, however, who do not believe the annulling of the Exchange's charter will have any effect upon prices.

One gentleman suggests that the Butter and Cheese Exchanges or the Produce Exchange be asked to appoint a committee of arbitration whose members would meet, say on the 1st and 15th of each month, hear the statements of both producer and dealer, and fix a price that would be fair and just to both. Members of these Exchanges have a knowledge of the milk producing business and of the condition of the market that would enable them to act intelligently on the matter.

THE MILK PRODUCERS' PROTECTIVE ASSOCIATION.

The Independent says:

It is not generally known, but it is a fact nevertheless, that an organization has recently been formed whose members are milk producers and those directly or indirectly interested in the business. Not only farmers, but merchants and other business men are included in its membership. The organization is known as the "Milk Producers' Protective Association," and its membership will include men interested along the line of every railroad over which milk is shipped to New York. The object of the association is "the securing and protection of the rights of its members in matters of transportation, protection from adverse legislation, and furthering in every way the best interests of its members in their legitimate business as occasion may demand from time to time." The officers are: Charles R. Bull, President; Joseph Board, Vice-President; George M. Roe, Secretary; J. D. Millsap, Treasurer. The Directors are: C. A. Burr, J. W. Corwin, F. H. Campbell, W. H. Hallock and Gilbert Carpenter. They are live business men and their names a guarantee that the Milk Producers' Protective Association will be something more than a name. The officers and directors have already planned a considerable amount of work and they will use every endeavor to accomplish their undertakings.

NATIONAL DRAMATIC COMPANY.

An All the Week Attraction at Popular Prices.

The National Dramatic Company which occupies the Casino all next week, will present on Monday evening, John A. Stevens' celebrated play, "The Passion Slave," a drama abounding in human interest and realistic situations, and which is interspersed with comedy songs, dances and music. He strikes him down, believes he has killed him and escapes.

The remainder of the story is beautifully worked out, is full of startling surprises, and of course ends happily for all. The "Passion Slave" has been played over 500 nights in New York and is considered one of the best American plays. Popular prices, ten, twenty and thirty cents, will prevail during the engagement.

SATURDAY, MARCH 23, 1895.

The State board of law examiners has named June 15th as the time for holding examinations of students for admission to the bar. Examinations will be held in New York, Brooklyn, Albany, Syracuse, and Buffalo.

The State Civil Service Commission decided, yesterday, that the head janitor of the capitol is Deputy Superintendent of Public Buildings and occupies confidential relations to the Superintendent and, therefore, they shifted the office from the competitive to the non-competitive schedule. All this is merely a device for turning out a Democrat and putting a Republican in his place.

Thirty-seven years ago a coal mine at Summit Hill, a short distance back of Mauch Chunk, caught fire and all efforts to extinguish the fire proving unavailing the fire has continued to burn ever since, and the burning mine has been one of the places of interest in that interesting locality. A few days ago, miners in the Shepp mine, struck the fire, a mile and a half from its place of origin on Summit Hill.

When the bill to give the Republicans control of the Albany police force was before the Assembly, Ainsworth, the Republican leader, warned his followers against such grab-bill legislation in these words: "If you follow this legislation in every city in the State you will bury the Republican party. And, gentlemen, in my opinion it will deserve to be buried." And the effect of the warning was that the Republicans passed the bill by a large majority.

Dun's Review, which has taken a persistently pessimistic view of the business situation and which has refused to admit that there were any signs of business revival, has at last changed front and this week says that "indications of improvement in business grew more distinct." Among the most encouraging signs of improvement which it notes are the increase in the volume of domestic trade and a better legitimate demand for money.

In spite of the protests and appeals of Assemblyman Chapman, who desired an honest and thorough investigation of the administration of municipal affairs in Syracuse, the Assembly has adopted a report which Mr. Chapman told his party associates "made the investigation a farce and a fraud." The investigation only went far enough to show that there was misadministration and maladministration in Syracuse, and then, since Syracuse is a Republican city, the Republican Legislature called a halt. Republicans never expose Republican wrongdoers nor punish Republican criminals.

A NEW RAILROAD TO WALDEN.

A Plan for the Extension of the Orange County Railroad.

President Burt, of the Lehigh and Hudson Railroad, recently caused surveys to be made for an extension of the Orange County road from Maybrook to Montgomery, the object being to secure a connection with the Wallkill Valley road.

No interest was shown in the matter by Montgomery people, and Mr. Burt's plans have been changed. It is now proposed to strike the Wallkill Valley at Walden. The route proposed is over the tracks of the Poughkeepsie Bridge road from Maybrook to Beres, and thence to Walden. Only two miles of new track would have to be laid. If the road is built it is probable that the Wallkill Valley's New York traffic would leave the O. and W. at Burnside instead of Campbell Hall and be sent over the new road.

The new road would also command a share of Walden's local business, and could supply the village with coal at much less than present prices.

HOME FROM THE SOUTH.

More Ducks and Swan From Currituck. Capt. Totten, Mayor Stansbury, ex-Mayor Bailey and Mr. U. T. Hayes returned, last evening, from a trip to the sunny South.

The three last named gentlemen stopped at Virginia Beach, but Capt. Totten, who was provided with gun and ammunition, went on to Currituck, N. C., where he bagged forty-five ducks and a swan.

Two Crazes Get Mixed.

As the consideration of the life and character of Napoleon is now the craze, one of Poughkeepsie's public school teachers asked her class: "What was the name of the wife of Napoleon?" A boy, whose mother reads all the latest works of fiction, innocently replied, "It—it—it wasn't Trilby, was it?"

ONTARIO MINSTRELS.

A Successful Entertainment Given Last Night.

The Ontario Minstrels gave a very successful entertainment at Nicholson's Hall, on North street, last night. The hall was well filled and the audience was so well pleased with the performance that each number was heartily applauded.

After the entertainment the floor was cleared and dancing to the music of Halstead's orchestra was commenced and kept up until a late hour.

A supper was served in the hose house by the Ontario ladies.

The minstrel company is composed of thirty-four members, of whom twenty are ladies, who render the choruses most admirably. The other fourteen are amateur burnt cork artists of no mean pretensions.

It is the intention of the minstrels to give an entertainment in the Casino during the fall.

THE ARSON CASE.

Proceedings Discontinued in Orange and Transferred to Ulster County.

The proceedings in the case of Wm. T. Flemming charged by Robt. H. Palmer with arson, in having set fire to his buildings near Walden in February have been discontinued in this county and transferred to Ulster county in which the fire occurred.

Application for a warrant has been made to a Justice of the Peace in the town of Gardner, and it was expected that Flemming would be arrested to-day.

A Family Row that Shocked the Recorder.

Sarah Brown, of Everett street, caused the arrest of her daughter-in-law, "Mame" Brown, for disorderly conduct and using abusive and insulting language. Several witnesses were examined by the Recorder but the testimony was so filthy that his Honor refused to listen to it, and threw the case out of court.

Stevens's Organ Concert.

Co-Operative Building Bank.

Home Office 309 Broadway, New York City

Loans money to buy or build homes in amounts from $1,000 to $10,000 to be paid for by monthly installments same as rent.

The Co-Operative Building Bank has nearly 200 branch offices in New York, Connecticut, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, Maryland and District of Columbia. It now has nearly $700,000 already loaned on first mortgages. $18.67 per month pays for a seven-room house in about nine years. $5 per month invested in the Co-Operative Building Bank Thirty Day Installment Stock, as an investment, will net the holder $1,000 in about nine years.

The above bank has a branch office in Middletown, with offices in Central Building, corner North street and Railroad avenue, and are prepared to loan money immediately on good rentable home property, to buy or build homes, to be paid back by monthly installments same as rent.

The above bank also has local branches established in Bloomingburgh, Warwick, Florida, Unionville, Westtown, Johnson, Slate Hill, Otisville, Port Jervis, Maybrook and Campbell Hall.

For circulars and full information apply or write to L. P. KNICKERBOCKER, Dist. Supt., Central Building, Middletown, N. Y.

CARPET TALK.

Talk is cheap, but it takes money to buy carpet; but what we want to impress on the minds of the readers of this paper is that it does not take much money to buy your carpets from us, this spring. When you can buy a 1st-class Smith's Moquette for $1 per yard, and the 2d quality for 75 cents, the very best 5-frame Body Brussels for $1, and all other grades in proportion, it seems as if every one ought to have a new carpet this spring. You will be more convinced of this when you see our new spring styles. Our line of Axminsters are "out of sight." We never before showed such a line of carpets in the 22 years we have been in business.

LANA OIL COMPLEXION SOAP.

There are good soaps and poor soaps—some high priced soaps are good, others are poor. Lana Oil Complexion Soap is essentially good; for a good soap it is especially low priced.

Lana Oil Complexion Soap contains Lana Oil, Buttermilk and Glycerine. It is made in part from Oil derived from Lamb's Wool which is acknowledged to be the best preservative of the tissues, removing the wrinkles from the skin and leaving it soft, pliable and elastic.

It is new in this section—largely used by Chicago belles, who know a thing or two. We had to buy a large quantity to get it at a right price—now we can sell it at 10 cts a cake (25 cents for three cakes). It is the prettiest cake of soap in the market—try the quality for yourself.

Multipled our soap sales several times under new methods! Cuticura Soap? Same old price, 15 cents.

Some good soaps 5 cents. Not a cake of soap from a questionable source in our stock.

Ladies' Kid Gloves.

If present indications are correct,

White and delicate Lemon or Canary colored gloves will be more extensively worn this season than ever before. We long ago observed the trend of popular favor, and accordingly prepared an assortment of these gloves that is not surpassed. Canary color, stitched and finished with black, has superseded pearl-white kid for demi-toilette occasions. We also have them in self stitching, but the black is more in favor. The buttons of all the smart gloves, whatever their color, are the mother-of-pearl, colored to harmonize with the gloves.

Look out for our Easter Display. It will surpass all previous efforts.

NEW TRIAL FOR MRS. ROYCE.

HER CONVICTION REVERSED BY THE BULLVILLE CHURCH CONFERENCE.

The Appellate Court Convinced That She Did Not Have a Fair Trial at St. Paul's—Judge Clarke's Rulings Assailed as Biased and Unfair—His Double Relation of Judge and Darwood's Counsel—An All Night's Session—His Adventures of a Reporter With More Zeal Than Knowledge.

Mrs. E. C. Royce is to have a new trial.

The judgment of expulsion from St. Paul's M. E. Church, imposed upon her last fall by the church jury, which sat in this city, has been set aside, and she has been restored to membership in the church, subject, however, to the possibility of a retrial on the charges of falsehood, slandering her pastor, etc., preferred against her by Dr. Darwood in the name of W. H. Knapp and others.

This decision was reached by the quarterly conference of the Bullville M. E. Church, sitting as an appellate court, at 5 o'clock this morning, after spending sixteen hours, in practically continuous session, listening to the reading of the record and to the argument of counsel in the case.

This finding of the appellate court is a bad set-back for Dr. Darwood, but it came very near being much worse, for the first vote of the conference was to not only set aside the judgment against Mrs. Royce, but to also acquit her of all the charges which had been brought against her.

The reading of the record in the case, which was begun at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon, by the secretary of the conference, Rev. Edmund T. Byles, was not concluded until 9 o'clock in the evening. An intermission of an hour, however, was taken for supper.

MRS. ROYCE'S AFFIDAVIT.

On conclusion of reading of the record of the trial Mr. McLaughlin, counsel for Mrs. Royce, offered the following affidavit:

In the matter of the appeal of Mrs. Royce from a conviction and expulsion from St. Paul's M. E. Church, of Middletown.

STATE OF NEW YORK, ss.:
ORANGE COUNTY,
I, Ida Royce, being duly sworn, says that she is the defendant above named.

That said trial at Middletown was presided over by Rev. W. E. Clarke. That Dr. Darwood was the real complainant and accuser in said trial.

That at or about the time of the beginning of said trial he demanded an investigation, and that during her trial it was generally known and commonly talked, that Dr. Darwood himself was about to be put on trial on charges involving in a greater or less degree the same facts and issues involved in defendant's trial. She further says that at the trial of said Darwood, which immediately followed her trial, Mr. Clarke appeared as the counsel and defender of said Darwood.

That it was commonly talked and believed in Middletown during her trial that the said Clarke, at the time he was presiding at the trial of defendant, was the retained counsel of Dr. Darwood and she says, on information and belief, that such was the fact, and that during her trial he permitted himself to be entertained at the house of Dr. Darwood.

She further says said Clarke's daughter was one of the women mixed up in the matter and a strong partisan of Dr. Darwood and that by manipulation of said Darwood, permitted and sanctioned by said Clarke, the committee sitting to hear her case was either entertained at the house of Darwood or assigned by him for entertainment among his personal friends and champions.

TRIED TO EXCLUDE THE AFFIDAVIT.

The admission of this affidavit was bitterly opposed by Judge Groo, upon many grounds, one of which was that he was unprepared to answer it.

Mr. McLaughlin, however, proved to the conference that a notice that such an affidavit would be offered to the appellate court had been served on Mr. Groo in January, and the Presiding Elder, Rev. W. H. Mickie, decided to admit the affidavit.

JUDGE CLARKE'S AFFIDAVIT.

Although Judge Groo had said that he was unprepared to answer this affidavit, it was no sooner admitted than he offered in reply to it, an affidavit by ex-Judge William E. Clarke, of the court before which Mrs. Royce was tried, in which he averred that he had been strictly judicial and impartial during the trial, that all his rulings were intended to be fair and that he had not allowed such trifles as eating Darwood's salt and preparing for Darwood's defense to swerve him one hair's breadth from the strictest judicial impartiality.

Realizing that ex-Judge Clarke was bound to defend himself in his rulings, and knowing that such a preposterous affidavit would have no effect upon an intelligent and unbiased jury, Mrs. Royce's counsel made no objection to its admission and in it went.

This matter consumed another hour of the time, and the members of the conference shifted uneasily in their seats.

ARGUING THE APPEAL.

D. W. Esmond, Esq., of counsel for Mrs. Royce, took the floor at 10 o'clock. He spoke for two hours and a quarter, reviewing the charges, testimony, objections and findings in a most exhaustive manner, and touched upon every vital point in the case.

The main point of his argument was that the trial had been a mockery of justice. The whole case turned upon Mrs. Royce's charges that Dr. Darwood had been guilty of improper conduct toward her, and Mr. Esmond insisted that while the widest latitude had been given the prosecutor it was also true Judge Clarke had rigidly excluded all evidence that tended to seriously compromise Darwood. Throughout the trial, Mr. Esmond said that it seemed to be the purpose of Judge Clarke to sacrifice the woman that Darwood might be saved.

PLEADING FOR DARWOOD.

After a recess of fifteen minutes to give the jury a chance to stretch their legs, Judge Groo began, at 2:30 o'clock, to argue in behalf of Darwood and the sustaining of the conviction. He eulogized Darwood and his work in the church, and told the story of what Lincoln is said to have said about Grant, when told, after the capture of Vicksburg, that Grant was drinking too much whiskey: "Is he? What kind of whiskey does he drink? I'd like to send a jug of that whiskey to every one of my generals."

Judge Groo didn't intend to imply by this that Darwood was a whiskey drinker, but made a sort of misfit application of the story to the effect that it would be a good thing for the Methodist Church, if there were Darwood's enough to place one on every charge.

He then defended Judge Clarke's rulings and insisted that the trial had been a model for civil and ecclesiastical practice.

MR. McLAUGHLIN'S ARGUMENT.

Judge Groo talked for over two hours and it was 3 o'clock when Mr. McLaughlin rose to make the final argument for Mrs. Royce.

Judge Groo had strayed away from the record and by his eulogy of Darwood had let down the bars for Mr. McLaughlin, who, in very vigorous language, proceeded to denounce Darwood as all that a minister of the gospel should not be. Judge Groo appealed to the presiding elder to muzzle Mr. McLaughlin but Mr. Mickie said not a word and Mr. McLaughlin's torrent of invective rolled on. Judge Groo made another attempt to stop him, but all the comfort he got was the quiet reply from the presiding elder: "You might better have left Darwood out yourself."

Mr. McLaughlin soon let up on Darwood and paid his respects to Judge Clarke. He denounced his rulings as unfair and his conduct in sitting as judge in this case while retained as counsel for Darwood in a case involving the same issues, as a most monstrous impropriety.

He said that such a thing would not be tolerated for a moment in a civil court. It showed a lack of appreciation of the decencies and proprieties of life that was simply appalling.

It was now about 4 o'clock. Every one had had his say and lawyers, interested parties, and spectators left the church, and the conference began the consideration of its verdict.

A NEW TRIAL ORDERED.

The informal discussion showed that a very large majority of the members were in favor of a complete reversal of the judgment and of acquitting Mrs. Royce of all the charges.

It was, however, thought better to merely reverse the judgment and send the case back to St. Paul's Church for a new trial.

The conference was in secret session for one hour but the entire time was not taken up in arriving at the above decision. The record of the proceedings was written by the secretary and the minutes approved and signed by the members before adjournment, which was taken at 5 o'clock.

SNEAK JOURNALISM.

The reporters for the Argus and Times, when told by Presiding Elder Mickie, yesterday, that reporters would not be admitted to the conference, got such reports of the proceedings as they could in an honorable way, telegraphed them to their respective papers and loitered about the village awaiting further developments. Not so, however, with the representative of Darwood's organ, the hero of the ladder episode at St. Paul's Church, during the Darwood trial, and into whose capacious ear the private pipe line has poured so much misinformation.

As soon as he arrived in town he took to the fields and doubled around the sand banks, dodged through the graveyard, scaled the fence into the churchyard and effected an entrance to the church through a basement window. He is supposed to have stowed himself away in an unused gallery of the church, and not being able to make his escape without detection he was unable to reach the telegraph office, and so by his over-smartness his paper was left without any report of the day's proceedings.

Fairly hugging himself with delight at his "successful" sneak act of the afternoon, the Press man tried it on again in the evening. He did not go in the gallery this time, but crouched down behind a seat in an unlighted corner of the church. The eagle-eyed sexton chanced to see him, as cold and stiffened by his crouching posture he shifted his position. A word was whispered in Presiding Elder Mickie's ear. Sec-

LED OUT BY THE EAR.

"One moment, Brother Byles," said Mr. Mickie, and rising from his chair he strode down the aisle, to where the Press man was skulking, took him by the ear, walked him to the door and made it plain to this "extra-enterprising journalist" that his room was a great deal better than his company. The Press man did not come back.

STRUCK BY A FALLING TREE.

John Ryerson, of Denton, Seriously Injured.

Yesterday afternoon, Mr. John Ryerson, of near Denton, and his hired man cut down a tree on Mr. Ryerson's place. In falling the tree swung around on the stump and came down in the opposite direction from what they expected. Mr. Ryerson saw his danger and started to run but was struck by a large branch of the tree and was knocked senseless. He was taken to the house and Dr. Hulett was called, who found him suffering from concussion of the brain and several severe bruises about the head and body, but gave the opinion that he would recover.

This morning word was received that Mr. Ryerson had passed a fairly comfortable night.

OBITUARY.

Samuel Townsend.

Mr. William H. Townsend received a telegram, yesterday, announcing the death of his father, Samuel Townsend, at his home in Havana, Schuyler county. Mr. Townsend was in his ninetieth year, and is survived by his wife, who is eighty-seven years old. It is a remarkable fact that this is the first death that has occurred in the family of four sons and three daughters in sixty years.

An Erie Engine Disabled.

The Greycourt wreckers were called out and put the engine on the track and an extra engine pulled the train and disabled locomotive to Jersey City.

DON'T STOP TOBACCO

And don't be imposed upon by buying a remedy that requires you to do so, as it is nothing more than a substitute. In the sudden stoppage of the use of tobacco you must have some stimulant, and in most all cases, the effect of the stimulant, be it opium, morphine, or other opiates, leaves a far worse habit contracted. Ask your druggist about "BACO-CURO." It is purely vegetable. You do not have to stop using tobacco with "BACO-CURO." It will notify you when to stop and your desire for tobacco will cease. Your system will be as free from nicotine as the day before you took your first chew or smoke. An ironclad written guarantee to absolutely cure the tobacco habit in all its forms, or money refunded.

Dear Sir:—I have been a tobacco fiend for many years, and during the past two years have smoked fifteen to twenty cigars regularly every day. My whole nervous system became affected, and my physician told me I must give up the use of tobacco for the time being at least. I tried the so-called "Keeley Cure," "No-To-Bac," and various other remedies, but without success, until I accidentally learned of your "Baco-Curo." Three weeks ago to-day I commenced using your preparation, and to-day I consider myself completely cured. I am in perfect health, and the horrible craving for tobacco, which every inveterate smoker fully appreciates, has completely left me. I consider your "Baco-Curo" simply wonderful, and can fully recommend it.

Yours very truly,
C. W. HORNICK.

Dear Sir:—I have been a tobacco fiend for many years, and during the past two years have used chewing tobacco very extensively. My nervous system became affected considerably. I have often tried to give up the use of tobacco, but always failed, until I bought three boxes of your "Baco-Curo." I used tobacco at the same time while taking "Baco-Curo," and after a week I lost the appetite for tobacco—smoking or chewing, and enjoying better health, and consider your "Baco-Curo" the safest, most harmless and reliable remedy for a tobacco habit.

Yours truly,

Dear Sir:—I have used chewing tobacco very extensively the past thirty years. I tried several "No-To-Bac" and other remedies, but without success, until I bought three boxes of your "Baco-Curo." I continued chewing tobacco while taking the preparation and find that the horrible craving for tobacco has left me, and I consider myself cured. WHAT MR. KRAEMER SAYS OF "BACO-CURO."

This is to certify that I, F. D. Kraemer, of Atlantic, Iowa, was an inveterate smoker of cigarettes for more than two years.

About eight weeks ago I bought three boxes of "Baco-Curo." I began taking it according to directions, and after taking one and one-half boxes, all the desire for cigarettes left me, and I have had no desire since.

I can heartily recommend "Baco-Curo" to all who are slaves to the cigarette habit or tobacco habit in any form, and are in search of a cure. I had become so under the influence of cigarettes, I could not remember anything that did not study, unless under the influence of the drug, which is death to the end, if kept up.

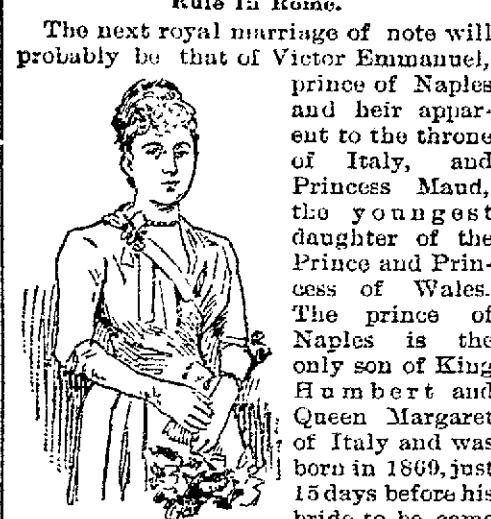

Cigarettes are sapping the lives out of more boys and young men to-day, than anything that is known to the world. Boys, before it is too late get some of this remedy that killed the craving for cigarettes in me and save your young life. Restore yourself to manhood. You will feel as though you had escaped an awful doom, and you have, when cured by "Baco-Curo," for you feel like a new being. I never felt better in all my life than at this present writing. I did not know what was the matter with me, until informed by the agent. He told me what was the reason I could not do anything unless under the influence of the death-dealing poison found in cigarettes. He did not believe him at first, until he explained the action on the system. Then I bought the goods and thank God and all concerned, I am a sound person to-day. Hoping that this may reach the unfortunate cigarette smoker, I remain,

Yours respectfully,
F. D. KRAEMER.

ITALY'S HEIR TO WED.

Princess Maud of England May One Day Rule in Rome.

The next royal marriage of note will probably be that of Victor Emmanuel, prince of Naples and heir apparent to the throne of Italy, and Princess Maud, the youngest daughter of the Prince and Princess of Wales. The prince of Naples is the only son of King Humbert and Queen Margaret of Italy and was born in 1869, just 15 days before his bride to be came to gladden the home of the Prince of Wales. He is said to be very liberal and progressive in his views and bears the reputation of being a very able, thoughtful and scholarly young man. The people of Italy have been very anxious to have him marry an Austrian or a German princess and thus strengthen the triple alliance by a matrimonial bond, but his marriage to Princess Maud will be a popular one.

Princess Maud of Wales has been the subject of a great deal of matrimonial gossip of late, and the matchmakers who dote on arranging marriages in high life have repeatedly alleged that she was to marry Lord Rosebery, the present premier of Great Britain. As Lord Rosebery is 20 years her senior and as the union would kill his political prospects, there seems to be no foundation for the rumors. On the other hand, the assertion has repeatedly been made by the entourage of the Prince of Naples that he was soon to wed Princess Maud.

The princess is 24 years of age and a very popular young woman. She has a sunny disposition and wins golden opinions from all with whom she comes in contact, owing to her tact, graciousness, bright sayings and love of fun. Her liveliness is so pronounced that at home her near relatives call her "Harry." She is a well formed, attractive and almost pretty girl and is said to closely resemble her mother. She takes an enthusiastic interest in all outdoor sports within the province of her sex and can fence and ride with skill. She is a great lover of dogs, horses and birds and does not consider it beneath her dignity as a princess to put in a good day's work in the dairy or employ her leisure at times in the kitchen garden.

CRESCO IS A MAN OF WAR.

The Venezuelan President Who Expelled the French and Belgian Ministers.

General Joaquin Crespo, president of the United States of Venezuela, who recently informed the ministers of France and Belgium that they were persona non grata and would find more favor in the eyes of Venezuelans if they returned to their native countries, is just at present the ablest soldier and citizen in Venezuela. He has been a fighter nearly all his life, and that he has lost none of his aggressiveness is shown by his recent action in expelling the foreign diplomats, whose offense was an attempt to have the powers imposed upon Venezuela a mixed foreign tribunal to have jurisdiction over all questions in which Europeans are concerned.

President Crespo has twice been the chief executive of Venezuela, and his present term of office was won with the sword. He was first chosen president in 1884, and during his regime, which, it is said, was controlled by ex-President

PRESIDENT JOAQUIN CRESCO.

Guzman Blanco, an admirable system of compulsory public instruction was organized, a telegraph and postal system was established, and railroads were built connecting Caracas and Valencia with their seaports. At the end of his term he retired to private life and was managing his extensive coffee plantations in Zamora in March, 1892, when President Palacio assumed dictatorial powers in order to continue in office, imprisoned the judges of the federal supreme court because they declared his continuance in office was illegal and committed other high handed acts.

The exiled senators and deputies who opposed Palacio formed a junta and made Crespo commander in chief of the constitutionalist or congressional forces. Crespo had 800 rifles hidden in a cave, and with them he armed a small insurgent army. He was joined by other generals, hundreds of government troops deserted Palacio, and Crespo had an army of 10,000 men behind him inside of three months. On Oct. 9 Crespo captured Caracas, the capital city, and was elected and proclaimed provisional president. His government was recognized by the United States Oct. 23 and later by other powers. Venezuela is the most northerly confederation of South America and has a population of about 2,400,000.

An Ancient Epileptic.

Aulus Verna, a Roman noble, gave a supper one night to a dozen of his cronies that made a hole of $250,000 in his bank account.

"What," asked the king in the play, "are those Roman citizens doing over there?"

"Your majesty," rejoined the herald, "they are believed to be forming a plot."

"Tell them they mustn't," commanded the monarch, with asperity, not unmixed with ennui. "Admonish them that they are throwing their time away. Plots have no place in this kind of drama."

With which the king turned to the audience and sang with fine effect, "Her Auburn Tresses Wouldn't Stay in Curl."—Detroit Tribune.

A Realistic Dream.

"Taking the other day, as a brief respite from labor, a little nap at my desk," said a man, "I dreamed that I was smoking, and that I had swallowed a lot of smoke. I awoke coughing. Wasn't that kind of curious?"—New York Sun.

The Eccentric Borrow.

On one occasion Borrow was at a dinner party in company with Whewell, both of them powerful men, and both of them, if report be true, having more than a superficial knowledge of the art of self defense. A controversy began and waxed so warm that Mrs. Whewell, believing a personal encounter to be imminent, fainted and had to be carried out of the room.

Once when Borrow was dining with my father he disappeared into a small back room after dinner and could not be found. At last he was discovered by a lady member of the family stretched on a sofa and grunting. On being spoken to and asked to join the other guests he suddenly said: "Go away; go away. I am not fit company for respectable people." There was no apparent cause for this strange conduct unless it were due to one of those unaccountable fits to which men of genius—and this description will be allowed him by many—are often subject.

On another occasion when dining with my father at Wimbledon he was regaled with a "haggis," a dish which was new to him, and of which he partook to an extent which would have astonished many a hardy Scotsman. One summer's day several years later he again came to dinner, and having come on foot and entered the house by a garden door his first words, without any previous greetings, were, "Is there a haggis today?"—John Murray in Good Words.

AT THE COUNTY SEAT.

INCIDENTS AND HAPPENINGS IN GOSHEN.

Monroe's Gratitude to Goshen Firemen—Prayer Meeting Topics—Ready for Business—Tax Collector's Settlement—Extensive Alterations Planned—Boys' Brigade at the Presbyterian Church—Other Notes.

From Our Regular Correspondent.

Many have been the times that Goshen firemen have been appealed to from sister villages for aid to quench disastrous fires, and they have always responded willingly. Four times, during recent years, Monroe has been visited by devastating fire and each time the Goshen fire department has responded promptly to the call for assistance. Their efforts on those occasions have always been appreciated by the residents of Monroe, and they may be rest assured that Goshen firemen will in the future, as well as in the past, stand ready to render assistance whenever needed. As an evidence of their appreciation of the prompt response of our fire laddies, last Sunday night, Chief Elliott, yesterday morning, received from the Board of Trustees, of the village of Monroe, the following:

At a meeting of the Board of Trustees of the village of Monroe, held in the corporation room, March 21st, 1895, the following resolution was unanimously adopted:

Whereas, it has been our misfortune to be again visited by fire in the dead hour of night, and knowing our utter helplessness to combat such a destructive element, and realizing the efficiency of the Goshen fire department when called into action, we desire in behalf of the citizens of the village of Monroe to extend to the firemen of the village of Goshen our most sincere thanks for the promptness with which they responded to our call for assistance at midnight of March 17th, 1895.

We cannot express too deeply our gratitude for the kind, neighborly feeling expressed by them through the columns of the Independent Republican and sincerely hope that nothing may ever occur to mar the friendship so generously manifested by Goshen's noble firemen in our recent appeal to them.

Some Personal and Local Notes—Concerning the Fortunes and Misfortunes of Others.

From a Special Correspondent.

Mrs. William Murray, of Elmira, spent Thursday and Friday with friends in this village.

Rev. Dr. Malson, of Philadelphia, is the guest of his son, Rev. William E. Malson, at his home in this village.

The ladies of St. James's Guild met to sew at the residence of Mrs. Wilmet P. Thompson, on Thursday afternoon.

A French cynic has said that we take secret pleasure in the misfortune of our friends. This is by no means strictly true. The average person is pretty good natured, is sorry for any one who is in trouble, and grudges no man his good luck if he does not thrust the favors of fortune too obtrusively upon his less successful neighbor. So long as Johnny Horner has the discretion to sit quietly in his corner eating his Christmas pie, there are few who would take it to heart if he pulled out any quantity of nice fat plums; but as soon as he begins to call out "What a brave boy am I!" he at

Spring Medicine

At this season, more emphatically than at any other, we should build for the future.

When Nature gives vitality to field and wood, there should be the harmony of renewed life and energy in our physical systems.

But, on the contrary, we find ourselves weak, dull, tired. This is because in the winter we have been housed-up in poorly ventilated offices, homes and shops, our blood has become thin and impure, and is unequal to the demand of the body for more life, more vigor, more energy, more strength.

Nature imperatively cries for help!

Where is it to be found?

Logically enough, in a good Spring Medicine, like Hood's Sarsaparilla, the great blood purifier.

This preparation has proven in many years of test that it supplies the demand as nothing else can

So easy to take and so readily assimilated, the purifying, vitalizing and enriching elements of Hood's Sarsaparilla—combined from nature's own storehouse of vegetable remedies for human ills, pass into the stomach and are then silently but certainly taken up by the blood and sent to every organ and tissue of the body.

The effect is often magical.

The weakness is soon driven off, that tired feeling disappears, the nerves are built up, the stomach resumes its tasks even greedily, the appetite becomes as "sharp as a whetstone," and the whole man feel "as made anew."

The wonderful cures of Scrofula, Salt Rheum, and other dreadful diseases prove the great curative, blood purifying powers of Hood's Sarsaparilla.

You undoubtedly need a good Spring Medicine. Take Hood's Sarsaparilla, the great blood purifier.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

The statements in the testimonial below are familiar facts to the immediate friends of Mr. Geo. A. Zirkle, school teacher, of Mt. Horeb, Tenn., very well known throughout the county, where he was born and has always lived. It illustrates the wonderful power of Hood's Sarsaparilla over all diseases of the blood. Read it:

"I believe in Hood's Sarsaparilla. I will tell you why. I have suffered from inherited scrofula from childhood. When 37 years of age my eyes became Strangely Affected.

I could not read after sunset, and when I would close my eyes I could not open them; but on whichever side I lay on that side I could open my eye. This condition continued about two years, and was succeeded by an intolerable itching all over my body and limbs. I had to have my little boys take shoe brushes and scratch me. It was dreadful. It continued a month and was followed immediately by a tumor in the right side of my neck as large as a small egg. I took physicians' prescriptions till I lost hope. In the meantime the tumor changed its place to the immediate front of my neck, supported and was followed by others, till six had formed and broken.

"Finally, three years ago, another large tumor seated itself on the point of my collar bone and in six months another half way back on the bone. Both of them soon began to discharge and continued to do so till about seven months ago. I tried everything, including prescriptions. I was often so weak that I could scarcely walk and my mind was so confused that I could scarcely attend to my business (school teaching). I was utterly discouraged. And now my story draws to a close. I began the use of Hood's Sarsaparilla a little less than a year ago, and took five bottles. When I began I had no faith in it. In less than 3 months on my shoulder were healed; I was cured of a troublesome catarrh; and scrofulous habit has steadily grown less apparent. I weigh more than I ever did in my life and am in the best of health considering my constitution. Do you wonder that I believe in Hood's Sarsaparilla? I can do no less than recommend it everywhere." GEO. A. ZIRKLE, Mt. Horeb, Tenn.

Both the Sores

Makes Pure Blood

Remember, It is Not What We Say, but What Hood's Sarsaparilla Does that Tells the Story. HOOD'S Sarsaparilla CURES.

once becomes obnoxious to everyone within earshot. It is strange that as a rule we have so little patience with self complacency when it inhabits the breast of another. It is a very comfortable feeling, that of being pleased with one's self, and why should we begrudge any one the enjoyment of it? It is not only human, but animal nature to indulge in the display of a bit of it now and then. If you watch a dog which has succeeded in securing an especially large and attractive bone, you will notice that it does not really thoroughly enjoy it until it has made all the other dogs in the neighborhood miserable by exhibiting it to them. It is these little weaknesses that make us interesting to each other. As a level country, however beautiful and peaceful it may be, is a trifle commonplace, so a character without its little ups and downs, its slight irregularities of thought and disposition, is apt to lack in interest. If we were all perfect what a dull planet this would be, and how we should be looking about after a time and longing to see somebody with whom we might find fault.

G. H.

Are you all tired out, do you have that tired feeling or sick headache? You can be relieved of all these by taking Hood's Sarsaparilla.
